THEIR RELATIONS ARE BROKEN OFF

V. P. I. and A. and M. Have Breach, and Yesterday's Game Was Their Last.

CONTRACT WAS VIOLATED

Virginians' Failure to Kick Goal Caused Loss of Hard-Fought Contest.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., November 26.—At a conference here this morning between the managers of the football teams of V. P. I. and A. and M., it was agreed that the game scheduled for this afternoon would be pulled off only with the understanding that athletic relations between the two institutions would hereafter be at an end. This was done in view of the fact that A. and M. refused to lay off Frank Thompson, of Raleigh, on account of his having played professional baseball.

The contract agreed to by both institutions when the game was arranged contained a stipulation forbidding all players who had received any remuneration whatsoever for service as an athlete. It later developed that Thompson had played professional baseball, whereupon the V. P. I. management refused to play the game. The A. and M. faculty committee replied that they would not consent to the removal of Thompson, though making no contention for his eligibility.

This morning, Professor Riddick, of A. and M., informed the V. P. I. manager that the game could be played only on conditions that Thompson maintain his position. This precipitated the breach which resulted in the severance of relations.

Lost Goal Loses Game.

V. P. I.'s failure to kick a goal in the second half prevented their forcing the game to end in a tie this afternoon, for shortly after their score had been registered, the A. and M. boys, rallying strongly, sent the ball across the line for a touchdown, and the pignin was accurately sent flying between the goal posts.

Five thousand enthusiastic rooters saw the game. They were equally divided between the two teams. Old Lafayette field was aglow with the colors of the two teams. The respective supporters were enthusiastic and confident, and no one gave up until the timekeeper's whistle called a halt. Governor Glenn was prominent among the Tarheel visitors and was given a royal reception.

Without a Score.

The first half was played without a score by either team, but disclosed the fact that they were evenly matched, full of grit, and determined to win or die trying. The ball seemed from one side of the field to the other, but a successful kick always got the ball away from the danger line.

Both teams showed up faster and played snappier ball in the second half, but that it was Greek meeting Greek was still in evidence. Considerable attention was given to the push play, which was favored by both teams, and it was by bucking the line that both teams finally scored.

V. P. I. Scores First.

V. P. I. was first to score. It was clever work, and the final rush of Hicks, which carried the ball across the line for a touchdown, was the sag for a magnificent demonstration by the Virginians. Hodgson was forgiven when he failed to kick goal.

After fifteen minutes of play, as the game was nearing a close, A. and M. showed marvelous form. The push play was used to great advantage, and Steffert got the ball across for a touchdown. Amid a pandemonium of cheering, yells and music, Thompson kicked the ball from the forty-five yard line.

The few remaining minutes of play were soon over, and neither side had a chance to score.

TIGERS DEFEATED.

Fight Desperately Against Tech, but Without Avail.

ATLANTA, Ga., November 26.—Fight desperately against superior weight, speed and all-round strength, the Clemson Tigers went down in defeat today at the hands of the Georgia Techs by the score of 30 to 5. Davis, Parrish, Ridley and Jenkins were the stars for Clemson.

Tech ran up twelve points in the first half and eighteen in the second. Clemson's score came on a fumble by Tech, Hardwick of Clemson, picking up the ball in midfield and running fifty-five yards for a touchdown. The day was excessively warm.

Red Is Brought to Earth and William and Mary Wins an Easy Large Field Is In at the Death. Victory Over Hampden-Sidney.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEESBURG, Va., November 26.—The meet of the American hounds of the Loudoun Hunt Club today was at the clubhouse in Leesburg, following an elaborate breakfast by the master and Mrs. Smith to members of the club and guests.

The start was made from the kennels east in the direction of the Cotton farms, and was witnessed by a large number of friends of the sport. The full membership of the club was out, led by the master, on The Cad, followed by many visiting guests. Cast on this George Town Turf, the hounds, favored by the ground and weather, took up the scent, carried the field in a fast run over intervening farms toward the Potomac River. In the ravines near the river the scent was lost. A second cast was made, and the field pressed close on the pack and was in at the finish, when a large red was brought to earth.

Riding to day were Mr. Smith, M. F. H. Mr. White, Mr. Tennant, Mr. Carter, Mr. William Corcoran Eustis, Mr. Chichester, Mr. Metzger, Mr. Rogers, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Caselman, Mr. Hoblin, Mr. Saffer, Mr. Harrison, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Castleman, Miss Swarth, Miss Alexander, Miss Fendall, Miss White and others. Mr. and Mrs. David Tennant will entertain the hunt at breakfast on Saturday at Red Gate.

LAST BIG GAME AT LOCAL PARK

In what promises to be a hard-fought game, the Richmond College football team will meet the Randolph-Macon team from Ashland tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Broad Street Park. If the Yellow Jackets fail to win from the Spiders, they will either be forced to meet Hampden-Sidney or lose the championship, while all there is for Richmond is the consolation of beating the Spiders. As both teams have trained hard for the past week and are in good condition, a good game is expected. The line-up will be as follows:

Bear Killed Near Amherst. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMHERST, Va., November 26.—Albert Maddox killed a big black bear weighing 250 pounds on Little Bear River in this county. The bear was being chased by hounds and was shot by Mr. Maddox while in the river fighting the dogs.

A deer was also seen in the neighborhood of Indian Creek. It was being chased by two dogs. The dogs gave out and the deer disappeared on a small mountain in that section.

H. L. Page, of Norfolk, has turned loose on his farm near this place quite a number of pheasants. He expects in a few years to have a hunting preserve there.

Many partridges are being killed now in the county, though the law forbidding the sale of the birds has to some extent reduced the amount of hunting.

Holly-Contested Game.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CULPEPER, Va., November 26.—A most exciting game of football was played this afternoon on the Culpeper grounds between the teams of Culpeper and Warrenton. The game was well-played on both sides, and was hotly contested, ending with a score of 17 to 15 in favor of Culpeper. Both teams had a host of sympathizing rooters, and good entertainment was furnished the large crowd from start to finish.

CHAMPIONSHIP IS AGAIN KETCHEL'S

Billy Papke, the Illinois "Thunderbolt," a Toy in His Hands.

KNOCKED OUT IN ELEVENTH

Noted Horseman Drops Dead at the Ringside from the Excitement.

ARENA, SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., November 26.—Stanley Ketchel, of Grand Rapids, Mich., regained the middleweight championship of the world today and reversed his defeat of last September, when he sent Billy Papke, the Illinois "Thunderbolt," crashing to the floor before a well directed blow that caught his opponent flush upon the chin.

The end came in the eleventh, prior to which Ketchel showed clearly that he was master of his opponent.

Round by round Ketchel forced his opponent, and when opportunity offered planted right to head or body, generally escaping without a damaging return. One during an aggressive moment they fell in the ringside and toppled through the ropes, wrapped in a close embrace. It was a left to the stomach that sent Papke to the ropes at this juncture.

In falling Papke seized his opponent and the force of his rush carried them clear off the platform and over the heads of the spectators.

A hundred willing hands assisted them to the centre, and in a moment they were grappling in a clinch.

Ketchel was a victor throughout. In his first round Ketchel drove Papke into a neutral corner, landing right and left almost at will, and thereafter the Illinois contender was always at a disadvantage.

In the fifth round Ketchel drove a hard left to the stomach, and Papke had not put up his hand before he encountered a hard right to the jaw. It was in the seventh, the Ketchel used his right to the greatest advantage. Papke's only hope lay in his disposition to clinch, but he was hit twice, and both blows tended to lessen his recuperative power.

In the ninth Papke was sent to the ropes across the ring by a powerful blow delivered in a clinch. He arose to meet Ketchel's right, which twice landed on the jaw. Papke went to his corner bleeding freely from the nose. This was the beginning of the end. In the first round Papke twice landed his back on Ketchel's swift assaults, and deliberately ran away.

The Knock-Out.

In the eleventh and final round Ketchel came up as fresh and strong as at any time during the fight. He heard the referee say "six," and then he stepped. I would have been able to continue the fight, as I was not hurt, and recovering fast. I want a return match."

Ketchel said: "I anticipated this result long before I entered the ring, and backed my opinion with my own money. Papke's victory in the South was an accident. Under proper conditions I am willing to fight him again."

The betting was seriously affected prior to the fight by rumors of Ketchel's failure to get into proper condition, dropping from 10 to 7 1-2 to 10 to 6.

Spectator Drops Dead. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., November 26.—A lively interest is being manifested in the city in the bout Saturday night between Joe Turner, of Washington, and Ed. Adamson, of Boston, who will wrestle at the old skating rink for welterweight honors. Turner claims the welterweight championship of America, and Adamson disputes it. Adamson gave Tommy Ryan, the middleweight, a hard fight here several weeks ago, but lost the third throw on account of a wrenched ankle. Tuesday night Turner bested Ryan after a hard-fought match. This causes the interest in Saturday's match, and a large crowd will see it.

Turner is managed by Len Stanley, the left-handed pitcher, who was with Norfolk in 1896, who pitched for that team here in the first game it lost that season. Walter Moser besting him.

They Win Hard-Fought Game With St. Louis. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ST. LOUIS, MO., November 26.—A hard-fought football game between the Cardinals Indians and St. Louis University teams today was won by Cardinals 17 to 0.

Throughout the first half the local eleven played sterling football. Three out of four times the Indians were forced to give up the ball when within the shadow of the goal posts. One, when they needed but three feet and had two downs to gain the distance. Harry Landsea, former tackle on the Dartmouth team, was largely responsible for this fine showing. A series of plays mixed up with brilliant forward passes in the first part of the second half gave two touchdowns, and then the visitors went on the defensive. Three times St. Louis had chances to score by goals from the field, but all the attempts failed.

VIRGINIANS WIN BRILLIANT GAME

Washington and Lee Defeats Georgetown by Very Narrow Margin.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 26.—Washington and Lee's football team won a victory over Georgetown today, in a gridiron struggle that was brim full of spectacular plays by the narrow margin of one point. The score was 12 to 11. The triumph of the Lexington lads provided a distinct surprise just at the football season's climax, and the gameness of the visitors won the plaudits of 3,000 spectators.

The Southerners possessed wonderful speed and executed trick plays that completely bewildered the Blue and the Gray.

On the other hand the Georgetown stars played far below their usual form, and lost ground time and again through their failure to execute the forward pass and onside kick.

After nineteen minutes' play, the visitors scored, Captain Alderson carrying the pignin over for a touchdown, and an easy goal was kicked.

In the rest of the first half the ball seemed up and down the field, neither team scoring. In the second half Georgetown took a brace, and as a result of several end runs, scored a touchdown and kicked goal. Shortly afterward Fitzgerald, the Georgetown star, scored the second touchdown.

After the second touchdown, the team was up and down the field, neither team scoring. In the second half Georgetown took a brace, and as a result of several end runs, scored a touchdown and kicked goal. Shortly afterward Fitzgerald, the Georgetown star, scored the second touchdown.
